Welcome to the new SO Learning Portal!

Thank you for being a part of the Special Olympics family. It is through the caring, concern and talents of all our athletes, families, and volunteers that Special Olympics has become one of the most respected sports programs in the world.

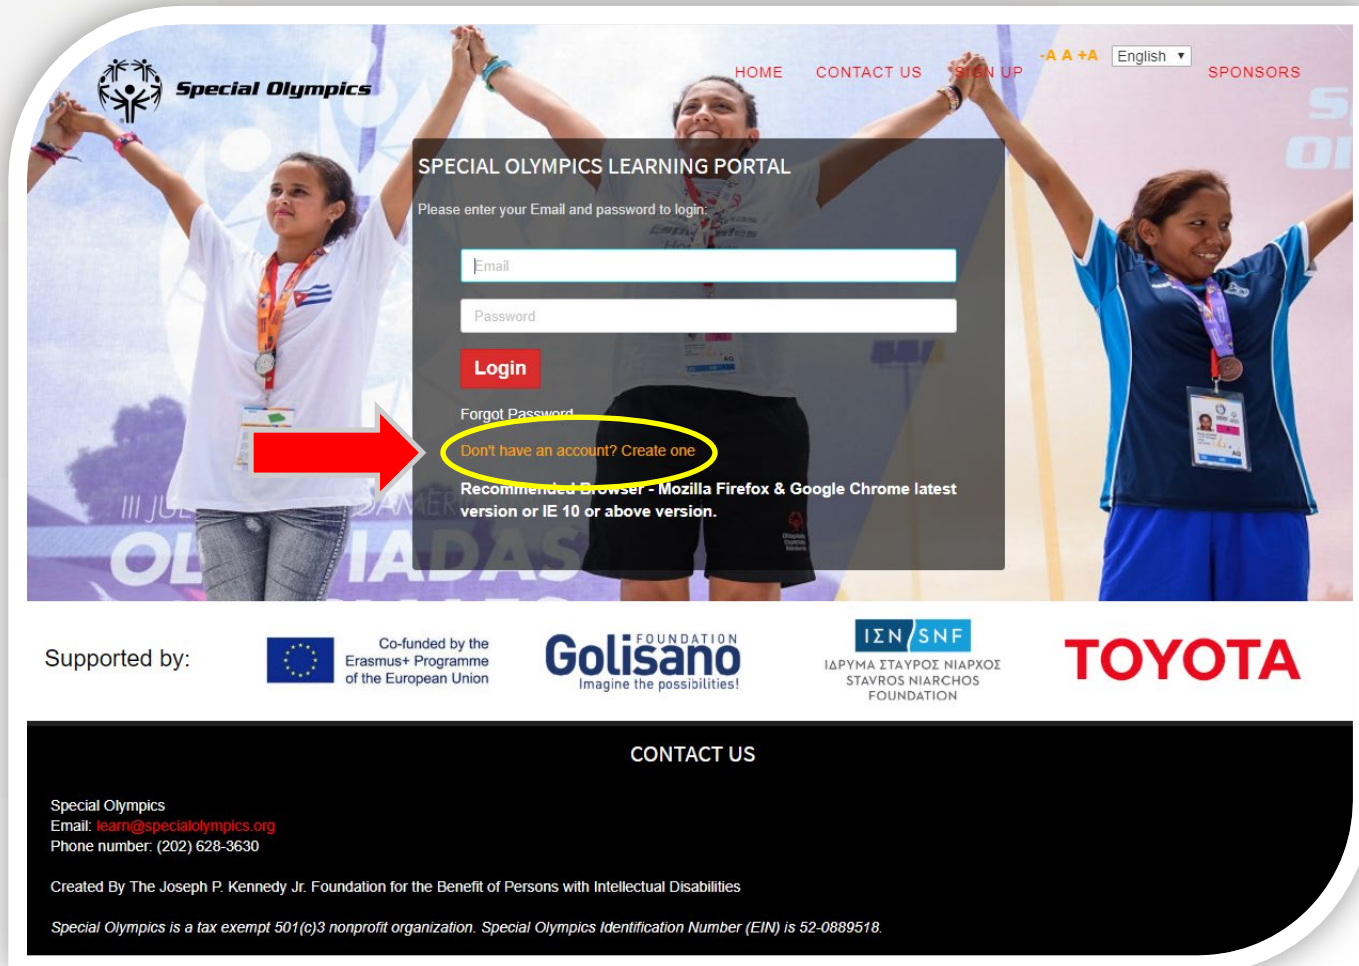

Your participation in the Protective Behaviors Training Program is just one more way that you demonstrate your dedication. This training is for all Class A Volunteers within Special Olympics (example: Coaches, Unified Partners, etc.). The Protective Behaviors Training Program is training aimed at preventing sexual abuse against Special Olympics athletes, as well as, ensuring the athletes' protection.

The screenshot shows the Special Olympics Learning Portal login page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for HOME, CONTACT US, SIGN UP, and SPONSORS. The main content area features a login form with fields for Email and Password, a Login button, and a link for Forgot Password. A red arrow points to the 'Don't have an account? Create one' link, which is circled in yellow. Below the login form, there is a note about recommended browsers: Mozilla Firefox & Google Chrome latest version or IE 10 or above version. The page is supported by the European Union, Golisano Foundation, IΣN/SNF, and TOYOTA. The footer contains contact information for Special Olympics, including email and phone number, and mentions the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation.
