

Inspiring the first unified generation.

Special
Olympics
Virginia

Global Messenger

Alberto Dominguez

Years Involved with Special Olympics: 10

Hometown: Montclair, Virginia

Sports: Powerlifting, Basketball, Flag Football, Swimming, Soccer, Track and Field, Floor Hockey

Educational/Work History: Graduated from Forest Park HS, Currently working for Service Source providing food services to the Marines at Quantico Marine Base

Career Goals: Wants to achieve higher education in reading, math, and history through the community college

People Admired: Roberto Clemente, Martin Luther King

Why is it important to build a more unified generation? "A unified generation is critical to eliminate barriers and to create a healthy understanding environment of our collective strength by working together."

Why is Special Olympics important to you? "It is very important since it is not only about sports but developing friends for life. Special Olympics challenges me to do better and have the courage and discipline to tackle the challenges and to compete and do my best."

Global Messengers are Special Olympics Virginia athletes who help spread the message and vision of the movement as well as the benefits gained by participation in Special Olympics. Global Messengers deliver a powerful message of respect, inclusion, unity and attitudinal change. For more information regarding the Special Olympics Virginia Global Messenger program please contact David Pawlowski at 804-726-3034 or dpawlowski@specialolympicsva.org.

"Working as a team makes us

Alberto Dominguez

Jerry Stanphill,

*Karen Cross,
Mentor*