

Inspiring the first unified generation.

Special
Olympics
Virginia

Global Messenger

Anna Mutter

Years Involved with Special Olympics: 7

Hometown: Sterling, Virginia

Sports: Basketball, Softball, Golf

Educational/Work History: Current Student at Northern Virginia Community College - Loudoun Campus

Career Goals: I want to work in the health care field, because I like helping people. I also want to be an author.

People Admired: I admire first responders, such as police officers, firefighters, and paramedics.

Why is it important to build a more unified generation?
"Everyone has something to offer. We all have our unique gifts."

Why is Special Olympics important to you? "Special Olympics has allowed me to make friends, compete in sports that I love, and have fun! It is a place where I belong, and where I can shine!"

"We should all treat each other with respect and kindness."

*Anna Mutter
Global Messenger*

Lexi Pemberton, Mentor

Global Messengers are Special Olympics Virginia athletes who help spread the message and vision of the movement as well as the benefits gained by participation in Special Olympics. Global Messengers deliver a powerful message of respect, inclusion, unity and attitudinal change. For more information regarding the Special Olympics Virginia Global Messenger program please contact David Pawlowski at 804-726-3034 or dpawlowski@specialolympicsva.org.