

Inspiring the first unified generation.

Special
Olympics
Virginia

Global Messenger

Daniel Morales

Years Involved with Special Olympics: 11

Hometown: Herndon, Virginia

Sports: Softball, Bowling, bocce, Track and Field, Basketball, Soccer

Educational/Work History: Attended the Davis Center, Worked at Giant

Career Goals: Wants to be a broadcaster for the NFL network

People Admired: Mother, Peyton and Eli Manning, his Uncle Michael, SMG4, Robin Williams

Why is it important to build a more unified generation? It's important to build a unified generation because we need to make a world that accepts everyone.

Why is Special Olympics important to you? "Special Olympics is important to me because it has given me friendships and coaches that really care for me. I have met so many great people that I would have never met without Special Olympics."

Global Messengers are Special Olympics Virginia athletes who help spread the message and vision of the movement as well as the benefits gained by participation in Special Olympics. Global Messengers deliver a powerful message of respect, inclusion, unity and attitudinal change. For more information regarding the Special Olympics Virginia Global Messenger program please contact David Pawlowski at 804-726-3034 or dpawlowski@specialolympicsva.org.

"If we don't spread the word about Special Olympics, people who really need it will never find out about it."

Daniel Morales

*Angela Morales,
Mentor*