

Trivia Rules and Regulations

Each company may enter one Coed team of 6 people in Trivia.

TRIVIA RULES

- No cell phones!!
- NO SHOUTING OUT ANSWERS...if you shout out an answer, your team will lose 1 point.
- There will be an Intermission between each round (4 total).
- Each question will be read twice and you will have 1 minute to answer the questions.
 - Questions will be displayed on a screen throughout the event.
- After each round, there will be approximately 3 minutes (the length of one song played over the loud speaker) to make corrections on the answer sheet and turn into the judges.
- If you have any questions, please ask the game monitor.
- If your team is caught cheating, your team will forfeit your points for that round.
- Initial answers to questions are final. Alternative answers will not be considered.
- In the event of a tie, we will have a tie breaker question until a clear winner emerges.
- Sportsmanship is KEY – have a terrific time, and be respectful of other teams, players, judges and volunteers.

Answer Sheets:

- Write your team name on the top of EACH answer sheet for every round. This is VITAL to be able to score your team correctly.
- Please print or write clearly. Correct spelling is not required (unless specified in the category), but it must be clear what the answer is.
- Only one answer per question should be written on the answer sheet. Blank answers or multiple answers for the same question will be considered incorrect.

POINTS

Teams will be ranked on their highest total points. First Place will receive a max of 100 points. Please refer to the MCCC Point System for information on points for Trivia and the amount each place will receive.
