

2022 Fact Sheet

What is the Music City Corporate Challenge (MCCC)?

The Music City Corporate Challenge is an Olympic-style event that allows Greater Nashville Area corporations to interact with each other through a variety of sporting events. Companies will compete in a variety of competitions.

Events are not final and subject to change. There will be a minimum of 5 competitions. Competitions in the past have included 3on3 Basketball, Dodgeball, Tug-of-War, Trivia, Bowling, Virtual Run, Golf, and many others!*

Competitions will take place over the course of six-eight weeks and companies will earn points toward their overall team score based on participation, placement and volunteer support. After all events have concluded, the company with the most points in their division will be crowned the Music City Corporate Challenge Champion. Divisions will be based on employer size so similar sized companies will compete against each another.

Sports are not finalized and are subject to change*

What is the Purpose of the Music City Corporate Challenge?

The event serves two main purposes, to provide corporations in the Greater Nashville Area an opportunity to promote employee fitness and to benefit Special Olympics Tennessee (SOTN). The MCCC mission is to promote health, wellness, and camaraderie in the Nashville business community by presenting participants with a unique, positive environment designed to challenge their bodies and minds through the spirit of corporate competition while supporting the Special Olympics.

When is the Music City Corporate Challenge?

Events will begin in the month of July and will conclude in the month of August. It usually last between 6-8 weeks. Schedules will be published and distributed to all participants the week of the competition. Schedules will vary based on the total number of teams signed up to compete in each division. Competitions will take place after work hours between 6:00-9:00pm and they are typically one challenge per week.

Who Benefits from the Music City Corporate Challenge?

Along with the health and personal benefit to everyone involved, the monetary benefactor of the MCCC is Special Olympics Tennessee. Special Olympics Tennessee provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. The SOTN organization serves over 17,000 athletes across the state and hosts over 250 events per year, free of charge to athletes.

The MCCC also provides companies in the greater Nashville area to network and compete in friendly competition and at the end the winner will be crowned the Music City Corporate Challenge Champion!
